LESS GRUMBLING AND MORE LIGHT

A Letter from Prison – Week 6
December 6, 2020

KEY SCRIPTURES

- Philippians 2:12-18
- Numbers 14.27
- 1 Corinthians 10:1-10

KEY POINTS

- Paul calls us to obedience and to apply humility, unity, and witness.
- We are to work out what God works in.
- We are to work out our own Salvation, not others.
- Grumbling can be an outward expression of selfish desires.
- Grumbling in light of the sovereignty of God is like stating, “God, You’re not being good to me.”
- We are lights of the World! Lights are used to make things evident or clear.
- Sometimes we need to let go and let God. Other times we need to grab God and get going!!!!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Discuss the connection and the implications between the crooked and twisted generation mentioned in this letter as compared to the other passages listed in this study.
2. Has grumbling been an issue for you? Explain.
3. What are some ways that Christians become lights?
4. How important is unity in the body of Christ?
