

MOTIVATIONAL MERCY

*Let's Do This – Week 1
August 1, 2021*

KEY SCRIPTURES

- Romans 11:29-33
- Romans 12:1-2
- Galatians 2:20

KEY POINTS

- God's mercy motivates us to give ourselves as a sacrifice.
- Our sacrifice is continual worship; it's a "living" sacrifice.
- Mercy allows us to be merciful.
- We must willingly allow God to consecrate us from the world.
- The Word of God is required to transform our minds.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Explain how God has been merciful to you?
2. Has this understanding motivated you to give of yourself?
3. What worldly ideas do you need to forsake?
4. Can you explain how God's Word renews your mind?

THE MERCIFUL ACTS OF GOD

- He saves all who call on Him, He Saves us from His wrath, He frees us from condemnation.
- He takes away our shame, He gives us his son, He paid the price for our sin.
- He took the judgement of our sin, He frees us from the penalty of sin.
- He frees us from the power of sin, He doesn't keep a record of our sin.
- He shares his Son's righteousness with us, He fills us with his Holy Spirit.
- He empowers us to do the next right thing, He pours his love into our hearts.
- He corrects us, He inclines his ear to us in prayer, He intercedes for us when we don't know how to pray.
- He is working all things out for good, He never forsakes us, He grants us Peace.
- He sings over us, He adopts us as His sons and daughters, He calls us his own.
- He lifts us from the grave, He gives us eternal life.
- And all this mercy is new every morning!
