THE ULTIMATE TEST OF LOVE

Let's Do This – Week 5
August 29, 2021

KEY SCRIPTURES

- Romans 12:1-2
- Luke 6:32-36
- Romans 12:14-21
- Hebrews 12:14-15
- Hebrews 10:32-39

KEY POINTS

- Offering ourselves as a sacrifice leads to love. Loving our enemies is the ultimate test of love.
- If our ultimate treasure is found in Christ and glorifying Him, we have the motivation to love our enemies.
- To love in the face of opposition is an opportunity for the world to see Jesus.
- If we are we are overcome with evil, we may lose an opportunity to give grace; even worse, we may become bitter.
- It has been said when hurt or offended, "Don't curse, don't rehearse, don't nurse, but reverse!"

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have you retuned evil with good? Share your experience.
2. Have you held bitterness and defiled many as per the scripture? Care to share?
3. How has this 5-part sermon series impacted you? What have you applied?
