KEY POINTS

- The account of the transfiguration of Jesus is a pivotal moment in the life and ministry of the Messiah.
- After the ascent to the top of the mountain with Peter, James, and John, Jesus will descend from the mountain and head towards Jerusalem.
- Jesus tells his disciples of his impending rejection, death, and resurrection for the second time. This time gives them a glimpse of His glorified state of divinity.
- Both Elijah and Moses appearing with Jesus during the transfiguration points to a pivotal moment: the law and the prophets will be fulfilled and completed in Jesus.
- The transfiguration also gives us a picture of our resurrection.
- Peter testifies to this event in his second letter; notice how majestic and how powerful this event impacted his life.
- This event should leave us just like it did with the disciples. With Jesus touching us and reminding us to listen to Him.
- God affirms his son and His obedience. And by our faith He affirms us as His sons and daughters.
