KEY POINTS

- “The object of a new year is not that we should have a new year, but rather we should have a new soul.” - GK Chesterton
- For us to be transformed, we must look upon the One who changes us, Jesus Christ, Himself.
- You will never be satisfied with the praise of man.
- Jesus was not looking for the praise of man but only to glorify the Father in His timing, not His own.
- There is a better reward from our Father who sees in secret.

DISCUSSION

1. What is our reward from the Father in Matthew 6?
2. What is holding you back from practicing these disciplines?
3. Share about a time when you gave, prayed, or fasted. How did that affect your growth in being a disciple of Jesus?
4. Share some secrets that God has revealed to you for the edification of the body.
