THE KING IS COMING

August 24, 2025

KEY SCRIPTURE

- 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18
- 2 Thessalonians 2:1–8
- Matthew 24:4–31
- Genesis 3:15
- 2 Peter 3:8–10

KEY POINTS

- Scripture is the plumb line that equips us to live ready for the return of Christ.
- Our hearts are deceitful, but the Lord transforms and equips us to live holy lives.
- From Genesis to Revelation, the story of God centers on Jesus as Savior and King.
- Jesus fulfilled prophecies at His first coming and will fulfill the promises of His return.
- Signs of His coming are increasing: Israel restored, global unrest, the push for a Third Temple.
- The return of Christ will be unmistakable, and believers will be gathered to Him.
- God is calling His Church to repentance, awakening, and readiness.
- The last days will bring both great harvest and great tribulation.
- We are called to lay down comfort, fear, and distraction to live fully surrendered lives.
- Jesus is coming soon—our response must be obedience, faithfulness, and proclaiming the Gospel.

DISCUSSION

- How does knowing Jesus is coming again shape the way you live today?
- What “comforts” or distractions might be keeping you from full surrender to Christ?
- How can you live with readiness without falling into fear or speculation?
- Where do you see God calling you to join in the harvest of souls?
- How do the Scriptures in 1 & 2 Thessalonians and Matthew 24 give you confidence about the future?
