BROKEN BUT TRUSTED

October 19, 2025

KEY SCRIPTURE

- Genesis 2–3
- Proverbs 20:6
- Matthew 10:16
- 1 Corinthians 13:7
- Romans 15:13
- Galatians 5:22–23

KEY POINTS

- Trust begins with God's character. Humanity broke trust in the garden, but God's response was redemption, not rejection.
- Broken trust has consequences, but not abandonment. God set boundaries for restoration and pointed to Jesus, the Lamb who would restore what was lost.
- God entrusts broken people with sacred things. He gives His Spirit, His Word, and relationships to those who fail yet can grow by His grace.
- Love bears the weight of failure. Like Jesus bore our sin, love forgives, hopes, and endures through the Spirit's power.
- Mistrust affects every relationship — even with God. Chronic mistrust hardens the heart and keeps us from community and grace.
- Faithfulness is a fruit, not a feeling. The Spirit forms it in us as we walk with integrity and obedience.
- When you can't trust someone, trust God with them. Doing so frees your heart from bitterness and releases control to Him.
- Restoration begins with repentance and grace. Healing comes when truth meets mercy, just as Bob and Terry experienced.
- God's faithfulness changes how we see others. Because He keeps believing in us, we can keep believing the best in others.
- Broken but trusted is the story of the Gospel. God still entrusts His Spirit, His mission, and His people to us — that's grace in action.

DISCUSSION

- What does it mean to you that God still entrusts us with His Spirit, even after we've failed Him?
- Why do you think trusting others can feel riskier than trusting God?
- How does "trusting God with someone" differ from trusting that person directly?
- What does 1 Corinthians 13:7 teach us about love's role in rebuilding trust?
- Can you think of a time when someone showed you grace you didn't deserve? How did it change you?
- How do we know when we're walking in the Spirit's faithfulness instead of human effort?
- What small steps can you take this week to rebuild trust — either in God, others, or yourself?
