TRUST IN THE LORD AND DO GOOD

October 12, 2025

KEY SCRIPTURE

- Psalm 37:3-4
- John 15:1-8
- Romans 5:8
- Proverbs 3:5-6
- Galatians 6:9-10

KEY POINTS

- True trust in God produces good works. When we stop doing good, it reveals a lapse of trust.
- Jesus modeled perfect trust. He obeyed the Father even to the cross, doing good to an undeserving world.
- Doing good is an act of faith, not reciprocity. We bless others because of who God is, not because of what others deserve.
- Trust unlocks God's provision and purpose. When we trust Him, He shapes our desires and meets them according to His will.
- Every believer is a branch in Christ's vine. Fruitfulness—multiplying disciples—is the evidence of trust and life in Him.
- God turns adversity into testimony. Pastor Daniel's story shows that surrender and trust bring freedom, favor, and revival.
- The mission is for everyone. Churches and believers must open their doors and hearts to the lost.

DISCUSSION

- Psalm 37:3 commands us to "trust in the Lord and do good." Which part do you find easier, and why?
- When have you heard the enemy whisper, "Why are you doing good?" How did you respond?
- How does Jesus' example of trusting the Father encourage you when life feels unfair or uncertain?
- What "fruit" is God calling you to bear right now—in your family, workplace, or community?
- How can our church better open its arms to those who are lost or hurting?
- Pastor Daniel said, "God has an individual plan for your life." What step of trust might He be asking you to take next?
