FROM THE ALTAR TO THE MISSION

Here I Am, Send Me
November 2, 2025

KEY SCRIPTURE

- Isaiah 6:1–8
- Acts 1:8
- John 20:19–22
- Genesis 1:26
- Romans 10:8–10

KEY POINTS

- God is still on the throne even when everything around us feels uncertain.
- Seeing God's holiness reveals our own sinfulness and need for grace.
- God's mercy cleanses and restores what sin has made unclean.
- Forgiveness always comes before the call to serve.
- Every believer is sent to share what God has done.
- God often reveals Himself most clearly in seasons of loss or change.
- True worship begins with a right view of God's holiness.
- God doesn't just forgive. He invites us into His work.
- The same God who cleanses also empowers through His Spirit.
- Our mission starts where we already are: our home, family, and community.

DISCUSSION

- What's an area of your life where you've recently had to remember that God is still on the throne?
- How does seeing God's holiness change the way you see yourself?
- Why do you think Isaiah's response to God's presence was "Woe is me"?
- How have you experienced God cleansing or forgiving you in a personal way?
- What do you think it means to say, "Here I am, send me"?
- Where might God be sending you right now?
